INTRODUCTORY.

ONCE more we have the pleasure to present Bloomington with a new Directory. Citizens will be the best judges whether it is any improvement on former ones. The McLean County Directory contains much useful information and nearly 1,600 additional names.

Since our last Directory, the population of the city shows a healthy increase. The following is the number of names in the Directory for:—

1884-5,	$9,749 \times 2\frac{1}{2} = 24,372.$
1886-7,	$10,151 \times 2\frac{1}{2} = 25,377.$
1888-9,	$10,527 \times 2\frac{1}{2} = 26,317.$
Adding for Normal,	3,000.
The population estimates,	—29,317.

Among the numerous improvements we notice the City Electric Light Works, and new C. & A. freight house, the First Baptist Church, the Grace M. E. Church, the Moses Montefiore Synagogue, Hotel Folsom, and the First National Bank building, the finest bank building in the state, outside of Chicago.

Thanking the people for their kindness and those patrons for their support, by whose liberality alone a Directory can be published, we remain,

Respectfully,
W. F. CURTIS.

NORMAL DIRECTORY.

An incorporated town, at the crossing of the C. & A. and I. C. railroads, about two miles north from Bloomington. Here are located the State Normal School, the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, and numerous churches and schools. Street cars run every half hour from Bloomington. It is also the great market for the Norman horse trade, florists, and small fruits. Population, about 2,800.

TOWN GOVERNMENT.

Chartered in 1867. Elections first Monday in March of each year. Police Magistrate elected once in every four years. The Board consists of five trustees.
